STORSTAD'S ANCHOR BLOOD STAINED

Had Ripped Through the Empress of Ireland Like a Great Can Opener.

[By Associated Press.] Montreal, Can., June 1.—An examination today showed the anchor jammed in the bow of the collier Storstad where it could have ripped through the Empress of Ireland like a giant can opener. The anchor was blood stained. The official count today puts the life loss at 969. One of the Storstad's officers said when he reached the deck the Storstad was going full speed astern. The rescued were put in the engine room. Some were so numbed they leaned against the engine until the flesh was blistered, declared the officer.

HEARNE DEFEATED BRYAN.

For the third time this season the Hearne baseball team defeated a team from Bryan on the Hearne club grounds by a score of 6 to 4. Although outlasted almost two to one by the visitors, the game was lost for Bryan by two or three errors in succession, a misjudged fly and a dropped fielder's choice netting six runs for the home team. The feature of the game was the great batting rally staged by the Bryan boys in the first of the eighth inning in which four runs were scored and three two-base hits were made. The pitching of Spell for Bryan was almost a feature, he fanning fourteen men and letting Hearne down with only three hits. Peebles, formerly of the Texas League, filled the box for Hearne, but was found to be rather easy for the Bryan boys, almost every member of the team getting at least one safety.

Batteries—Hearne, Peebles and Hicks; Bryan, Spell and Houston.

J. S. BARKER ANNOUNCES.

J. S. Barker of the southern portion of the county authorizes The Eagle to announce him as a candidate for commissioner of precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the July Democratic primary.

Mr. Barker belongs to one of the old Milligan families, was born and reared in the precinct and now lives a few miles from the town of Milligan. His long residence in the precinct gives him an intimate knowledge of the county, its needs, etc., and a wide acquaintance with the people. All of which is very important to a man's qualifications as a county commissioner.

Mr. Barker says if elected his chief concern will be the roads and bridges of the county. He is strictly in favor of the very best to be had and says the county has long stood in need of a forward movement on the road and bridge question. He also favors a progressive county government in other directions as far as can be had along safe business lines. He wants the county credit kept unimpaired and a safe working balance in each fund whenever possible.

The Eagle submits his name and claims to the voters of precinct No. 1.

RIVER REPORT.

At Mumford the river rose one foot and nine inches from Sunday morning to ten o'clock this morning, and was still rising. It was running out in the low places in that locality.

In the lower bottom there had been a few niches fall yesterday morning, but at 9 o'clock it began rising again and is still out in low lands. At Waco, however, it fell six feet yesterday and was still falling today. The farmers are now hopeful the worst is passed and that the damages will not be very serious.

POOR MAN'S BANK OPENS.

New Orleans, La., June 1.—The "Poor Man's Bank" to be known officially as the Industrial Bank and Trust Company, formed as a result of the campaign waged against the loan sharks of New Orleans, began business today. While the bank will make a feature of loaning money to salaried people, it will also do a general banking business in making loans in modest amounts to merchants, dealers and manufacturers who at times have collateral which, though not acceptable to institutions doing a strictly banking business, is sufficient to insure loans that may meet the demands of the holders of these securities.

RETIREMENT OF BISHOP WHITE.

South Bend, Ind., June 1.—Bishop John Hazen White of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan City, has today retired, and will spend the next six months traveling. The bishop's eyesight has been failing, and this is the cause for his retirement. The parishes of the diocese raised a purse for the bishop to spend in travel.

Whaddy Ye Mean by "Or?" Calumet Av.—To rent—Or, furnished rooms. Respectable people or Christians.—Chicago Tribune.

OLD ELI IN CATHAY.

A Yale Graduate Sits at the Right Hand of China's President.

Great is old Eli! Yale, Alma Mater of statesmen, scholars, commercial captains, leaders in every walk of uplift and energetic endeavor, has scored a new triumph. In Cathay a Yale man sits at the right hand of President Yuan Shih-kai and directs the railway, postal and telegraphic policy of China's 400,000,000 people.

A worthy son of Yale is Liang Tun-yen, LL. D. He came from Cathay to this country in the eighties, and good fortune directed his footsteps to New Haven, where he learned the principles of upright, manly life and good government, as well as the book knowledge which goes with a university course. He returned to his own country with a splendid reputation for scholarship, for manliness, for progressive foresight. Throughout the last days of Manchu rule no man stood higher in the estimation of Americans in China than did Mr. T. Y. Liang of Yale. Now the cable tells us he has been offered and has accepted the portfolio of communications.

Mr. Liang takes charge of China's railway building at a time when his great Nation is seriously embarking upon her most important constructive period. The task before him is one that would tax the patience of a Job and the restless energy of a Roosevelt. Will Mr. Liang prove equal to his opportunity? Every Yale man, of course, will answer with enthusiasm, "Yes." And while the future of Mr. Liang, with the future of China, rests on the knees of the gods, others besides the sons of Eli will watch with hope and pride the performances of China's new Minister of Communications, believing that the years to come hold much for him in true greatness and the fruits thereof.

His appointment by President Yuan forges a new link cementing Americanism in the Orient. We are drawing closer together, China and the United States. And the news that Mr. Liang, scholar and statesman, is also an ardent fan, will doubtless be greedily seized upon by those who argue that the baseball battery is even more potent than the battalions of bellicose belligerents.

Etruscan Vases.

The famous Etruscan vases were wrongly named, for, though made in Etruria, they were the productions of Greek genius. They are elegant in form and enriched with bands of beautiful foliage and other ornaments, figures and similar objects of a highly artistic character. One class has black figures and ornaments on a red ground—the natural color of the clay; another has the figures of the natural color and the ground painted black. The former class belong to a date about 600 B. C., the latter date about a century later and extend over a period of some 300 or 350 years.

Tobacco in France.

Twenty great factories work up the whole of the tobacco manufactured in France, and the right to retail is jealously guarded by the state. Permits to open tobacco shops are usually granted to widows of officers of the army and navy or of other employees of the government.—London Telegraph.

Our First Daguerrotype.

The first daguerrotype ever taken in America was a picture of the Unitarian church, Washington square, New York city. The exposure was made by Professor S. F. B. Morse and occupied fifteen minutes.—Magazine of American History.

Didn't 'Ear the 'Owls.

Country Host—I hope the owls didn't disturb you last night, Lady Jenkins? Wife of Local Mayor—Law bless you, no. I didn't 'ear anything. Which dog was it?—London Punch.

The Ruler.

Facetious Friend (teasingly)—Well, which rules, you or your wife? Mr. Youngwed (with hauteur)—You forget we can afford to keep a cook.—Exchange.

Sometimes Not.

"A man is soon forgotten after he is dead," said Mrs. Gabb. "Not if you marry his widow," replied Mr. Gabb.—Cincinnati Enquirer.
